3 On May 11, 1999, the court issued an order addressing the United States' and Walker
4 River Paiute Tribe's Joint Motion for Leave to Serve First Amended Counterclaims, to Join 5 Groundwater Users, to Approve Forms for Notice and Waiver, and to Approve Procedure for 6 Service of Pleadings Once Parties Are Joined (Aug. 19, 1998), in which the United States and 7 the Walker River Paiute Tribe ("Tribe") seek to include groundwater claimants in service of the 8 First Amended Counterclaim of the United States of America (July 31, 1997), and the First 9 Amended Counterclaim of the Walker River Paiute Tribe (July 31, 1997), and the responses and 10 reply to that joint motion. Minutes of the Court (May 11, 1999). At a telephonic hearing with 11 the parties on May 21, 1999, the Court ordered the following:

13 [T]he parties will have forty-five (45) days from this date within 14 which to submit a stipulation, or if a stipulation cannot be reached, 15 then a statement of the issues on which there is agreement and the 16 issues which are disputed with respect to planning and scheduling 17 according to the order of the Court of May 11, 1999, and any 18 matters that are related to the issues and problems referred to in 19 that order.

20 Minutes of the Court (May 21, 1999). The Court indicated, however, that the 45 day period was 21 flexible and the Court would allow additional time if necessary.

22 On June 30, 1999, the Court entered an order accepting a stipulation by the parties to 23 extend the due date for submission of the stipulation or statement of the issues on which there is 24 agreement and the issues which are disputed, from July 5, 1999 to August 16, 1999. Due to 25 scheduling conflicts, counsel for the Tribe and the United States have been unable to circulate a 26 draft stipulation or statement of issues to counsel for the other parties until August 6, 1999. The 27 parties are concerned that reaching consensus on the stipulation or statement of issues will take 28 additional time beyond August 16, 1999, and hereby agree to request a second extension of time

1 until September 30, 1999 to submit the stipulation or statement of issues to the Court.

2 Accordingly, the parties herein stipulate and agree that the parties will have to and 3 including September 30, 1999 to file a stipulation or a statement of the issues on which there is 4 agreement and the issues which are disputed.
